

Please do not alter the present "Do Not Call" regulations in NJ. It's really pointless to allow citizens who do not want to receive telemarketing calls to be forcibly assaulted on a daily basis by telemarketing companies. Why waste everybody's time? How does either side benefit from this? There is enough aggravation in daily life without this added stress.